AWARD MESSAGE

Pandu has been a member of UMR Portals team for over 8 months as a senior developer. He has shown his technical skills and expertise in enhancing UMR Portals development. He has delivered the assigned tasks on time with zero defects and highest quality. Pandu is leading UMR - Komodo team technically and providing solutions and his onshore stakeholders have a good impression on him. Digged into the code of adaptive level messaging legacy application, understood the functionality and acquired complete knowledge on it and also gave KT to other team members for the same. All of his deliverables are distinguished for their quality and generic solution. Great collaboration across the teams to support the team members in meeting deadline on their day to day tasks development. Being available to the business team whenever in need for testing the user stories and got good appreciation from business. Handling the scrum calls in the absence of scrum master and giving sprint demo's to the cross functional team and Business/PO. He has communicated well between cross functional teams and with Business/POs to gather all requirements in order to complete and deliver all assignments with high quality on time. Here are a few recent tasks in which He led UMR team
